

Calgary Learns 2024-2025 Program Grant Call for Applications

Program Grant applications are due January 15, 2024.

About CALP Program Grants

Calgary Learns is the Community Adult Learning Program (CALP) granting council for Calgary. The Ministry of Advanced Education funds CALP, which supports over 80 community-based learning organizations in Alberta that provide adult literacy and foundational learning opportunities to financially and/or socially barriered adult learners. As Calgary Learns operates in an urban setting where there are other learning opportunities available, our funding specifically supports adult foundational level programs that remove financial barriers to learning.

Calgary Learns administers Program Grants to local, part-time programs that focus on delivering literacy and/or learning content designed to meet the foundational learning needs of adults. The granting term is from July 1, 2024 to June 30, 2025.

If you are applying for a foundational program designed to serve Indigenous learners, please refer to the Indigenous Program Grant Call for Applications, available at www.calgarylearns.com.

All successful applicants are required to collect Outcome Measurement and Evaluation (OME) data, as defined and required by the Ministry of Advanced Education's CALP grant. For more information and examples about OMEs, see the CALP Data Collection Guidelines and Calgary Learns' funding tutorial videos.

Funding support provided by

Eligible CALP Areas and Categories

Program applications are accepted in the following funding areas and categories as defined and prioritized by the Alberta Ministry of Advanced Education.

A single application can be used for multiple learning opportunities if they are designed to address the same need and have the same primary learning objective. Separate applications are required for a learning opportunity in different categories.

Highest Priority Funding Area		LITERACY AND FOUNDATIONAL LEARNING (LFL) LFL programs focus on foundational skill development of financially and socially barred adult learners (18+).
CATEGORIES	Adult Literacy	Reading, writing and document use for learners with English as their first language (can speak and understand English). The ability to identify, understand, interpret, create, communicate and use printed and written materials associated with varying contexts for learners up to and including Grade 9.
	English Language Learning	The study and practice of basic English language by individuals whose first language is other than English and who are unable to communicate fluently or learn effectively in English. Programs help adult learners gain proficiency in speaking, reading, writing and listening in English for learners up to and including CLB 4 (Canadian Language Benchmark). Priority is given to programs designed for participants who do not qualify for LINC and/or support the high needs of ELL literacy learners.
	Numeracy	The ability to use, apply, interpret, and communicate mathematical information and ideas for learners up to and including Grade 9.
	Basic Digital Skills	This category supports programming that builds skills beyond a basic understanding of applications, such as Word, and enables individuals to understand and use digital systems, tools, applications and networks in order to access and manage information and thrive in learning, the workplace and daily life.
	Skills for Learning	Learning opportunities support the development of the fundamental skills and habits of learning that support foundational learners to build confidence, develop an identity as a learner, advocate for themselves, and engage in foundational and other learning. These skills and habits include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Recognizing oneself as a learner • Taking risks in learning • Actively engaging in the act of learning • Developing learning strategies • Building collaboration skills in learning • Strengthening communication skills in learning
Secondary Priority Funding Area		COMMUNITY CAPACITY BUILDING (CCB) CCB programs complement, build upon, or supplement the literacy and foundational skills that financially barred adult learners (18+) are trying to achieve. Although CCB programs are more focused on delivering specific content rather than foundational skill development, the design and delivery of the program must focus on being accessible to and meeting the needs of foundational level learners. CALP examples include programs that may focus on the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Employment readiness • High School Equivalency Prep • Indigenous languages/cultures • Parenting • Social & Emotional Skills

Eligible Program Delivery

Literacy and Foundational Learning (LFL) and Community Capacity Building (CCB) programs can be delivered through various types of learning opportunities to meet the adult learner goals. These include:

Tutoring
Ongoing one-on-one or small group with individualized learning plans delivered by paid tutor or trained volunteer
Courses
A series of instructor-led, learner-centred classes delivered to the same group of learners with the same learning goals and objectives
Family Literacy Courses
A series of instructor-led classes delivered to the same group of learners with the same learning objectives utilizing Family Literacy philosophy and best practices to achieve adult literacy and foundational learning outcomes
Learning Activities
Lowest priority: drop-in or one-off learning opportunities, which includes drop-in tutoring (no ongoing relationship with learners). Learning activities can be part of a multi-delivery approach to a program, not a stand alone.
